

Indiana Libraries

Indiana Libraries is a professional journal for librarians and media specialists. Published twice a year, it is a joint publication of the Indiana Library Federation and the Indiana State Library. Practitioners, educators, and researchers are invited to submit manuscripts for publication. Manuscripts may concern a current practice, policy, or general aspect of the operation of a library system in Indiana. The ILF Publications Committee is currently taking suggestions for subsequent themes for the publication. If you would like to discuss possible themes for the publication or have ideas for a paper, contact Indiana Libraries editor:

All manuscripts should be submitted on a computer disk, if possible. The article should be double-spaced throughout with good margins. Writers should be identified by a cover sheet with the author's name, position, and address. Identifying information should not appear on the manuscript.

Photographs or graphics are welcome and should accompany the manuscript. Contributions of major importance should be 10-15 pages, double spaced. Rebuttals, whimsical pieces, and short essays should be 2-7 pages, double spaced.

Manuscripts will be acknowledged upon receipt, and a decision concerning use will be made 20 days after the date the manuscript is issued. The editor reserves the right to revise all accepted manuscripts for clarity and style. Upon publication, the author will receive two complimentary copies.
